Dear Mr Lavis,

Thank you for your prompt responses providing detailed information on the above captioned complaint. We continue to applaud your commitment to improving Her Majesty's Cayman Islands Prison Service.

By copy of this letter we also wish to reiterate to the Ministry of Home Affairs the Commission's continued concerns about the general condition of the prison and the urgent need to allocate sufficient financial resources to implement the 50 outstanding recommendations of the 2015 Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Prisons report.

Yours sincerely,

James Austin-Smith
Chairman, Human Rights Commission
